Interesting Anniversary Exercises at Grace Church.

The anniversary exercises of all the Episco. pal Sunday-schools in the city were held yesterday afternoon in Grace Church, Wentworth for the County of Charleston: street, and proved more than usually attractive and interesting. The schools represented were those of the Church of the Holy Communion, Grace Church, St. John's Chapel, St. Luke's Church, St. Michael's Church, St. Paul's Church, St. Philip's Church and St. Stephen's Chapel. The children first assembled in their respective Sunday-school rooms and there formed in procession, which, at 4 P. M., marched to Grace Church, preceded by the banners of the different schools. At Grace Church, the position allotted to each school was indicated by printed cards attached to the pews, and the vast thiongs of children where by this means promptly seated. The scene in the church was striking and beautiful. The bright-faced children, whose dresses reflected every hue of the rainbow, with a fair sprinkling of adult friends and teachers, completely filled the body of the church, and could not have numbered less than one thousand. Upon the walls at the side of the church were displayed the banners of the different schools, and in the chancel were assembled a number of the Episcopal clergymen of the city, including the Revs. John Johnson, of St. Philip's; C C. Pinckney, of Grace Church; A. W. Marshall, D. D., of St. John's Chapel; J. Mercer Green, city missionary, and W. H. Hanckel, of St. Stephen's Chapel.

The exercises were preceded by a service o prayer, conducted by Rev. Messrs Hanckel and Johnson, after which the annual reports of the various schools were read by Rev. Mr. Johnson. These were listened to with great interest, and exhibited very encouraging degree of progress during the past year, and a very satisfactory condition of the schools at the present time. A hymn was next sung by the choir and the congregation, and thee an address was delivered by Mr. H. P. Archer, in which he reviewed the work of the past year, pointed out its features of encouragement, and exhorted his hearers, both teachers and scholars, to press on with increased energy and zeal, keeping ever before them the banner of Christ, and remembering that in that sign they must conquer.

After the singing of another hymn the children were addressed by the Rev. Mr. Pinckney, who exhibited a map or chart, showing by a series of light and dark squares, each representing one million of inhabitants, the comparative space of the earth's surface occupled by Christians, Jews, Mahomedans and heathen, and the number of people embraced in each class. By means of this chart he showed the giant strides that had been made toward Christianizing the world, and deduced lessons of encouragement for all devoted to the service of Christ in the nurseries of His church.

This was followed by another hymn, after which the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Pinckney and the schools were dis-

PIRTOLS AND COFFEE. - Monday night, about twelve o'clock, a disturbance occurred at the corner of Concord and Inspection streets, in which Issac Evans, colored, drew a pistol upon Robert Wilson. Before the weapon could be used Clubs and Stars put in an appearance and the drawer submitted to the arrest. The case was referred to a trial justice for adjudi-

NORTHERN VISITORS TO FLORIDA,-The Jacksonville (Fla.) Union says that never before ad such an influx of Northern visitors as during the past season, and estimates that their numbers during the past six months have reached 15,000. The register of one hotel shows for that term 3842 names. That is only one out of thirteen hotels and boarding houses in the city.

GRANT AND SCOTT .- Jas. Grant, a colored man convicted at the late term of the Inferior Court of assault and battery, was yesterday pardoned by Governor Scott. Grant had been sentenced on the 3d day of May to pay a fine or ten dollars, and spend thirty days in the Charleston Jail. He had already served out eighteen of the thirty days before the pardon was granted. The pardon takes off twelve days of confinement, and he is now Scot free.

COLONEL JOHNSTON'S PANORAMA, of a Tour in Europe, was witnessed by a large audience at the Hibernian Hall last evening. The entertainment was much enlivened by the humorons descriptions with which Colonel Johnston accompanied the exhibition, and passed off very agreeably. The gorgeous transformation scenes, supposed to represent picturesque caverns under the Rhine, were generally admired, and elicited frequent applause. This evening the performance will be repeated. with the attractive distribution of one hundred presents.

CRUMBS.—The schooner Herald was sold at auction, at South Atlantic wharf, yesterday morning, by William McKay, for six hundred dollars cash.

PRESENTATION .- At a meeting of Union Chapter, No. 3, B. A. M., held last evening at Holmes's Lyceum, Past High Priest Augustine T. Smythe was presented with a valuable jewel as an acknowledgment of valuable services rendered the lodge. The presentation was made with complimentary remarks by Brother J. Somers Buist, and acknowledged in a suitable and graceful manner by the reciplent. The jewel was designed and artistically fashloned by Mr. A. W. Lewin. It consists of a heavy triple delta badge of gold hanging from a crimson ribbon, on which is a star with the name of the lodge, surmounted by the pick and spade in gold.

A RADICAL ASPIRANT,-The following "notis," by an aspiring colored individual of Matthew's Bluff, Beaufort County, was lately posted on a store door in that place, and has since been going the rounds of the press. If it be genuine the writer has certainly shown himself to be superior in scholastic attainments to some of the members of the present Legislature who can make no pretensions to writing at all:

NOT DEAD YET .- James Grant, the colore. man who was mentioned in yesterday's News as having been badly cut with a razor by another man, on the Bulow place, in St. Andrew's Parish, was received into the City Hospital on Monday night. The wounds upon his chin and shoulder were not severe, bu the gash upon the neck was deep and dangerous. He received prompt attention, and his wounds are all healing up rapidly. James will probably be up and doing in about a fortnight's time, and will probably be more careful next time about who shaves him.

ACCIDENT .- On Monday last, while a boa containing six white females and children, and a colored man, was in Wando River, near Remley's Point, it was struck by a flaw and upset. The whole party were in imminent danger of drowning, but fortunately the mis hap was witnessed by some colored fishermen who hastened to the spot and succeeded in rescuing all of the unfortunates. The colored men who 'rendered such opportune assistance were named William Roper, J. Maurice, Dick Richardson, Joe Smith, B. Chisolm, S. Hug-

A Noisy Time.—Clifford street was alarmed on Monday night about half-past nine o'clock by the loud cries of murder and help which proceeded from a woman who had taken refuge in a house from the police, and was resisting the arrest. She had just stolen a pair of shoes, and being pursued by the loser and the police, had taken refuge as stated. After a hard struggle, in which it seemed that the house was going to be pulled down, the woman, Diana Simons, was captured and lodged in the Guardhouse. She admitted the theft and disturbance before the Mayor vesterday morning, and was sent to the House of Correction for twenty days.

CLUBS AND STARS .- John Allen, arrested for being disorderly at the corner of Mazyck and Broad streets, was fined one dollar, and paid. Isaac Jervey, lodged for being drunk and raising a disturbance on the premises of a gentleman in Lamboll street, was fined one dollar. Perry Glover, lodged for being drunk and using indecent language in Queen street, was visited with a similar sentence. Ben Hernandez, arrested for disorderly conduct at the residence of Hannah Deas, in o'clock, on her grand excursion to St. Augus-Church street, was turned over to a trial justice.

A black horse, four ' promenading, cost his property.

NIGHT THIEVES ON THE ROUNDS .- Last week, the apartment of a gentleman, on Rutledge street, was entered by thieves, who cut through the window-blinds and pushed back the bolt, and carried off a pocketbook and several pieces of clothing.

On Monday night, a residence on Tradd street was attempted to be entered in a similar manner. The operators had sawed through the blinds when they were discovered and put to flight. Yesterday morning the chamber of a gentleman residing in Legare street was entered by thieves, who carried off a complete suit of ine black clothes. They effected their entrance by climbing up into the plazza between' one and five o'clock A. M., and effected the raid without awaking the sleeping occupants of the apartment or house. Bolt the windows, and be careful these close nights.

THE MYSTERIES OF JUSTICE .- A COFFESDOR dent relates a curious, not to say suspicious, incident in connection with the cases against the county commissioners, which after pending for many months were finally discontinued by nolle pros. in the Inferior Court. He says that the books of the county commissioners show that a check was issued to one Mrs. Mc-Cullough for three thousand dollars for timber furnished in building and repairing bridges: that a bench warrant was issued to compel the attendance of Mrs. McCullough, who was taken from a sick bed and brought into court as a witness; that she there learned to her surprise that the cases were dropped, and that she was and is ready to swear that she never had any contract and never received any check or money for furnishing timber to the county, and that on the contrary she had given the county commissioners permission to take all the timber they wanted, free of charge, in order to repair and build bridges for the convenience of the public. Somebody certainly ought to explain.

PRIZES AT THE PICNIC.—The following is a list of the prizes awarded at the annual picnic of the Turnverein last Monday at Mount Pleasant:

To the ladies: First prize, handsome tollet set, Mrs. F. Witsel; second prize, pair of gia; A. G. Fisher, Vermont; John Postell, Saflower vases, Miss Louisa Schelbe.

The prize for the guests was won by J. Senior. The gentlemen all shot with rifles, the weaker nerves of the ladies being accommodated by an air gun.

The prizes were awarded with the usual compliments late in the afternoon, after which lights were procured, and the old Mount Pleasant hall shook to the steps of the dancers until after ten o'clock in the evening. The marooners reached the city, after a delightful day, between eleven and twelve o'clock on Monday night.

score years and ten, and throughout his entire life had ever been, beth as a man and a Christian, one who could be called a blessing and a benefit to any society in which us was placed.
